

Let Them Eat Cake!

Team Building Dinner Dessert Event

The Let Them Eat Cake event is a great team building activity that is fun, quick-paced, challenging and delicious. Your team will enjoy a sense of unity, camaraderie and fun while creating and decorating their cakes. The event can be pure fun or it can include custom debrief topics that are relevant to your business environment. The program can also be designed to reinforce other company initiatives or themes.

The large group forms into smaller teams. Each team is provided with the materials to plan, create and decorate their own Cake. Along the way, teams create a team name, slogan for their cake and a marketing presentation to help "sell" their position as having the World's Best Decorated Cake.

The event is overseen by a professional Emcee / facilitator. The Let Them Eat Cake event includes team decorating stations, decorating utensils, and all the ingredients to decorate a cake.

Upon completion, each team's cake will be evaluated, based on a set of criteria by the facilitator. Cakes can be made before or after dinner. Cakes are intended to then be eaten as dessert.

Pricing is based on group size – please contact us for a quote. Thank You.
